Hello:

We are in receipt of and have considered your response to our meet and confer letter of September 25th. In our September 25th meet and confer we advised that it is our position that the discovery you have served, including but not limited to, the 141 Requests for Admission, is not relevant to the case (your claim was resolved by a binding Appraisal Award, dated September 12, 2025 and you do not have any other claims pending), that the discovery, including but not limited to, the 141 RFAs is not proportional to the needs of the case; and that the discovery is oppressive and creates an undue burden and cost to our client. Please be advised we do not agree with your September 27th response to our meet and confer letter. We will be seeking court involvement as necessary to limit oppressive discovery pending the court's decision on the dispositive motion we have scheduled. In the interim, we will provide initial responses to pending discovery in accordance with our position outlined herein. We intend to submit all discovery responses within 30-days of the date (September 21) that you provided our office with full and complete copies of the discovery you served upon us, which was missing pages/data. We were not able to begin to prepare response templates, which are handled by our legal assistant, until we had complete copies of your discovery requests.
